Rules:

1. All classes are held under the general rules and conditions of the Festival.
2. All birds entered in the Festival's show must be the bone fide property of the exhibitor and must have been in their ownership since 1st October 2018.
3. No bird may compete in more than one class unless specifically stated in the class description and a bird may only be exhibited in the class appropriate to it. Please ensure that the entry form is completed accurately as no refund of entry fees will be made in respect of a bird entered in a class for which it is not eligible.
4. Birds suffering from any form of contagious or infectious disease must not be brought to the Festival.
5. Entry forms must be completed in full and must be received, with full payment of entry fees, by the Secretary no later than Friday 5th October 2018. No late entries will be accepted.
6. Egg classes are included in the Garden, Craft and Food competition but the class information is at the end of this schedule.
7. Substitution of entries will not be permitted after the closing date for entries and no refund will be made in respect of withdrawals made after that date.
8. In the event of there being more birds entered than can be accommodated, the organisers reserve the right to require exhibitors to make a proportionate reduction in the number of entries. A refund of appropriate entry fees will be made in these circumstances.
9. In the event of any class having fewer than three entries on the day, the organisers reserve the right to amalgamate classes. This will be at the discretion of the Steward, after discussion with the Judge.
10. While within the Festival venue, all exhibits are subject to the orders of the Steward and may not be withdrawn from competition without his / her consent.
11. All exhibitors will receive relevant information during week commencing Monday 15th October.
12. Pen numbers will be available from the Stewards on the day.
13. Exhibitors and other persons in charge of poultry must not display the name of the exhibitor in any way during judging.
14. Birds must be in their allocated pens by 8.45am. No access will be allowed after this time.
15. No birds may be shown with open rings
16. After penning, birds may not be handled by any person without the permission of the Steward.
17. Only sawdust provided by the organisers may be used in cages
18. Birds must be provided with adequate food and water at all times. Water and water containers will be available at the venue but exhibitors must provide food.
19. Judging will commence at 9.30am.
20. With the exception of the Stewards or other representatives of the Organisers, no person will be admitted to the judging area during the judging.

21. The Judge may disqualify any exhibit fraudulently dealt with or any person he deems guilty of dishonorable conduct.
22. Exhibitors may uplift their birds after 4pm or immediately after all judging is completed, whichever is the later, unless permission to leave early has been given by the Organiser.
23. Any protests must be lodged with the Organiser in writing, before 3pm on the day of the Festival. The Organisers reserve the right to settle all protests or disputes that may arise and that decision is final.
24. Prize money, where payable, must be collected from the Steward at the completion of the judging. Trophies and special prizes will be presented to exhibitors at the completion of judging. No prizes will be posted out after the event.
25. Where prizes or donations have been made for any particular class or purpose, such prize or donation will be awarded to that class or purpose for which it was given.
